

INDEX

Preface by Noël Duval	5
Aknowledgements	15
Introduction. Late Antique North Africa: Status Quaestionis and Method of Analysis	19
1. Some Historical Events	23
1.1. The Borders of the Provinces from the 4 th Century to the Byzantine Period, 23 - 1.2. Byzantine North Africa, 28 - 1.3. Local Tribes, 30.
2. Theoretical Issues and the Transformation of Urban Areas in North Africa: an Introduction	32
2.1. Late Antique Urbanism: Change or Decay?, 32 - 2.2. The Late Antique Period: Transformation and Crisis?, 36 - 2.3. The Expansion of Christian Communities, 37 - 2.4. The Vandal Invasion and its Influence on the Evolution and Change of Classical Towns, 39 - 2.5. The Byzantine Period: Changing Use and Adaptation of Urban Space, 41.
1. Late Antique Period (Late 3rd Century-Beginning 5th Century): Continuity and Change in the Classical Roman Town in North Africa	45
1. Monumentalising Public and Private Buildings: The Late 3 rd -4 th Century Urban Landscape	45
2. Private Buildings in Late Antiquity	45
3. Meeting Places for Collegia and Associations	66
4. Collegia and Associations in Carthage: The Debated Archaeological Evidence	73
5. Public Buildings	82
6. Urban Areas Between the End of the 4 th Century and the Beginning of the 5 th Century: A Revision of the "Carthage de Saint Augustin"	96
6.1. The Ecclesiastical Regions of Carthage, 97 - 6.2. A New Image of the Late Antique North African City, 109 - 6.3. The Private Buildings, 111 - 6.4. Fortifications and City Walls, 118 - 5. The Public Architecture, 122.
2. The Vandal Period (429-534): Changing Townscapes	127
1. Destruction and Reconstruction: The Contrasting Evidence of the Vandal Period	127
1.1. Ceramic Production, 128 - 1.2. Rural Landscapes, 132 - 1.3. Trade in the Vandal Period, 133.

2. Vandal North Africa: An Attempt at Reconstruction	134
2.1. Public Architecture, 135 - 2.2. Private Architecture, 145.
3. Religious Buildings and Problems of Arianism: The Contrast Between the Arian and the Catholic Church	148
4. Vandal Carthage: New Aspects of the Town	154
3. Byzantine North Africa: Processes of Transformation	167
1. The Byzantine Period: A New Urban Environment	159
2. Carthage in the 6 th and 7 th Centuries	168
2.1. The 6 th Century, 168; 2.2. Carthage in the Late 6 th and 7 th Centuries and Early Arab Periods: Changes in Urban Use, 178.
3. Byzantine Sufetula (Sbeitla): A City of Byzacena	181
4. Lepcis Magna in the Byzantine and Early Arab Periods	185
5. Byzantine Fortifications, City Walls and the Concept of "Urban"	187
6. Tombs in Urban Areas: A Vandal and Late Byzantine Phenomenon?	198
7. The "Reuse" of Public Buildings and Churches	208
8. The Reuse of Building Materials and Lime Kilns: Evidence of the Decay of the Urban Fabric?	213
9. Evidence for Production and Export in Urban Areas from Late Antiquity to the Arab Conquest: Another Use for Public Buildings	217
9.1. Production in Urban Areas: The Cases of Leptiminus and Carthage, 220 - 9.2. Pottery Production in Urban Areas, 224 - 9.3. Murex Dye Production, 225 - 9.4. Garum Production, 226 - 9.5. Olive Oil Production Activities, 227.
10. Urban Production: Changes in the Byzantine (and Arab?) Period	232
10.1. New Production and Processing Areas Within Towns (Both in Previously Abandoned Public Spaces and in Peripheral Areas), 233 - 10.2. The Church (The Merging of Secular and Religious Arenas of Power in the Hands of the Bishops?), 236.
11. Changing Townscapes: A New Urban Layout	237
4. Conclusions and New Perspectives of Analysis	281
1. Transition Revisited: Decline and Regulated Evolution in North African Towns	281
Bibliography	289
Index - List of Places and Buildings	343